English Courses
Thursday	English 9/10: Great Books II	Year 2 of this course covers some of the Great Books including works from Ancient, Medieval/Renaissance, Early Modern and Late Modern literature. We will approach these works from the traditional literary analytical framework centered in a Biblical worldview. Students will build their foundation for critical thinking and observation through reading and discussing various genres of classic literature. The study of grammar, literary analysis, writing and discussion will be the emphasis of this class.	Novels, short stories, poems, essays; other materials and assignments will be provided. Students will need to obtain some books (some are in the public domain/available online).	Sherri Kurtek	Sherri received a Bachelor's in Communication Studies with an emphasis in Journalism, and a minor in Religion from APU. Prior to homeschooling her three children, she reported news for the Orange County Register, and worked as both a clinician and director of assessments at a learning center for children. She has been homeschooling for 12 years, graduating her first two in Spring 2023. She has a passion for students to embrace and hone the ability God gave them to communicate through writing. Tuesday	Spanish I	This class takes an innovative and engaging approach to help students not only learn about Spanish, but learn to communicate at a novice-high level. All chapters present vocabulary and grammar within the context of the theme. Cultural studies infuse the text from the artwork down to the activities, with a heavy focus on developing a biblical worldview.	TBA	Alejandra Barbosa	Alejandra has been homeschooling for four years now, during which time she has utilized different teaching techniques and styles. She's learned that children learn best when they feel they are not "learning." She tries to make lessons fun and enjoys using acronyms to memorize important material. She's been fluent in Spanish as it was her first language and her aunt, an academic Doctor, made sure she did not lose proper Spanish and resort to slang or colloquial terms. Thursday	ASL I	ASL sign language is the only accredited sign for the United States. In this beginning class we will learn how to communicate in sign as we learn vocabulary, group practice, presentations, games, and tests. We will also explore some of the culture of the deaf community. There will be a new lesson every week. The student is expected to study the lesson at home, culminating in a quiz at the beginning of each class time. We will have an exam and a class presentation at the end of each quarter to reinforce what the students have learned.
